THE CHAMPION NEWS

By Wilda Moses

Early last week the roads were full of expectant people hurrying off to the embrace of family and the annual ritual of feasting together with love and gratitude. Later the roads were full of happy, satisfied people longing for their homes and hearths and full of precious memories and the idea of adhering to a sensible diet until Christmas. The long road trip home gives them time to reflect on the growth of the young ones and the decline of the old ones. Counting the number of Cowboy Churches and the number of Dollar General stores adds fun to the journey.

One Old Champion rushing into Mountain Grove to get last minute chores done in a hurry before the Odyssey, found a light flashing on the dashboard indicating an issue with the inflation of her tires. It was a new light she had never seen which alarmed her and had her ‘stepping on it’ in a panic for the last ten miles. Austin at the Jiffy Lube happened to be wrestling with the long air hose as she pulled in and, in a jiffy, had her reassured and ready to go. He said the colder temperatures had lots of those lights flashing. Among the many things we have to be grateful for, competent, kind, helpful people are some of the bests.
