Intercounty Electric Cooperative Association (IECA)
has openings for
Bucket Truck Operator

The position is non-exempt. The position is for the Salem area but may be based at any of the IECA locations dependent upon need at time of hiring and may be relocated at any time during employment.

The primary job duties will be building and repairing overhead and underground power distribution lines within the scope of his/her training and certification in a safe and efficient manner within accepted operations standards. Qualified applicants must be able to operate a bucket truck, digger, trencher, forklift and skid loader to frame and set poles. Must have journeyman knowledge of equipment and setting of poles, repairing and framing of poles. Ability to hook up single-phase and multi-phase transformer connections using the correct configuration to assure the end user of proper voltage levels is required. Qualified applicants will have experience in conducting tree trimming activities and tree maintenance duties.

Applicants are required to have a high school diploma or equivalent. Bucket Truck Operator shall have certification of completion of an approved electrical lineman program or applicable/comparable experience. A class A CDL license is required.

Applicants selected must successfully complete a pre-employment drug screening, pre-employment background check, and a post-offer WorkSTEPS functional employment test.

An application and complete job descriptions can be found at www.ieca.coop under Employment Opportunities or picked up from the Licking district office, located at 102 Maple Ave., Licking, Missouri. To be considered, a completed application must be submitted to IECA by 5:00pm Monday, October 7, 2024.

IECA is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to sex, race, color, religion, national origin, age, marital status, political affiliation, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, disability or protected veteran status. We are committed to providing a workplace free of any discrimination or harassment.
